

Department of Geography and the Environment
Villanova University

Global Change Seminar Series

Tuesdays at 11:30 in Mendel 256

Date	Speaker	Topic
20-Jan	Dr. Frank Galgano Department of Geography and the Environment	"A Critical Evaluation of Global Sea Level Rise"
3-Feb	Dr. Amanda Grannas Department of Chemistry	"Chemistry of Pollutants in Arctic Air, Snow and Ice"
24-Feb	Dr. Adam Langley Department of Biology	"Elevated CO ₂ Effects on Ecosystems"
10-Mar	Dr. Keith Henderson Department of Geography and the Environment	"Seasonality of Climate Change in the Northeastern United States"
17-Mar	Dr. Paul Rosier Department of History	"Native American Green Power: Environmentalism in an Age of Global Change"
24-Mar	Dr. Kelman Wieder Department of Biology and Associate Dean of Sciences	"The Alberta Oil Sands: Economic, Environmental, and Social Issues"
31-Mar	Dr. Chaone Mallory Department of Philosophy	"Who Knows?: Ethics and Epistemologies of Climate Change and Environmental Justice"
14-Apr	Dr. Robert Traver Civil and Environmental Engineering	"Designing for Stormwater Sustainability"

These lectures are open to the public, and all faculty and students are invited to attend.